Our homes are structures, shelters, domiciles. But the idea of a residence encompasses so much more than mere tentage – mere respite from heat and cold and wind and rain and the relentless summer sun. If all we needed was a place to escape the elements, we might just as well live in insulated barns.

But your home – your residence – is much more than that. It's love and marriage and family, of course, home and hearth, kith and kin. But at a more fundamental level it is a reflection of who you are, an enduring stake stuck into the earth that declares to all: This is who we are, this is what we believe in and stand for and cherish.

This is not where we live, not how we live. This structure, this shelter, this domicile – this home – is our lives, as much an essential part of what we are as our heads, our hands, our hearts.

Home is where the heart is? A home like this is the beating heart of lives lived wisely and well.

Quiet, clean, elegantly suburban living – right on the golf course

The Kitchen is the heart of your social life in this home...

You'll have three full bedrooms – plenty of room for guests...

Your new home is right in the heart of everything, with great shopping nearby and the Arrowhead Towne Center just a short drive away. You'll have all the west side sports attractions in your neighborhood, too: Spring Training Baseball and pro Football and Hockey. You're an easy drive to the SR-101 and the US 60 Freeways. But with that shady front patio and unlimited golf course views, you won't have to leave home to find paradise...
